

Work Lappy of SURVEY RESULTS

SURVEY RESULTS SUMMARY 2020

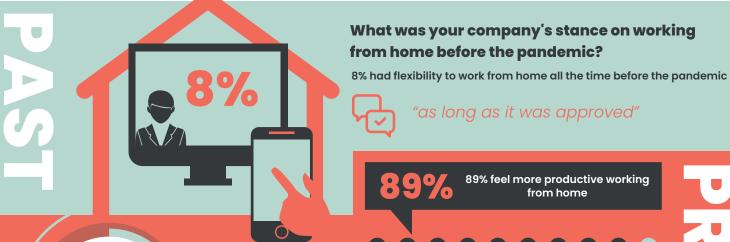

work happ

SURVEY RESULTS

The future of how, when and where people and organisations work is going through a transformation.

In our recent national survey we asked 1000 office-based employeess to share their views on how the workplace needs to adapt in order to stay relevant.

What was your company's stance on working from home before the pandemic?

"as long as it was approved"

70% find working from home to be normal or even better than pre pandemic

from home

89% feel more productive working

42% worry whether colleagues think they are working productively

73% feel supported by their employer whilst working from home

79% feel lonely or excluded while working from home

64% enjoy not having to do the daily commute

6% feel working relationships have been negatively impacted since working from home

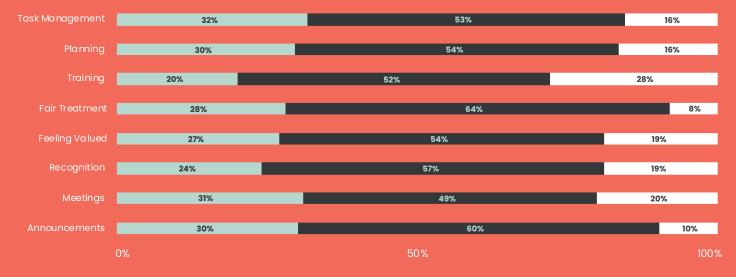

72% need better home-office technology

When thinking about staying connected to your company, manager and colleagues, do you think the following have got better, got worse or stayed the same?

Got better

Got worse

61% feel positive most of the time whilst working from home

"I feel like I have more time"

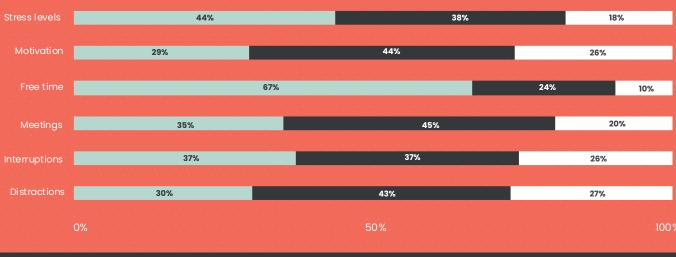

Looking at the following factors that can affect productivity, do you think they have got better, got worse or stayed the same?

Got better

Stayed the same

Got worse

Which of the following statements would make you happier and more productive at work?

shorten their working ek to make them more productive

47% would be more productive if they could work flexible hours

to return to the way it was before the pandemic

13% of respondents want to work exclusively in the office in the future work happy.

Want to understand more about how technology can support your organisation to Work Happy?

As a trusted Microsoft Silver Partner, we support organisations to become better connected, more productive and happier.

Specialising in Microsoft 365, we offer services from consultancy to migration, development and implementation.

ALEX GRAVES

Managing Director & Co Founder Alex.Graves@siliconreef.co.uk

